Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Psychiatry International, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to psychiatric research and practice. The journal publishes original articles, critical reviews, research notes, and short communications. I am confident that you will find the journal offers significant contributions to interdisciplinary research—encompassing biological, clinical, medical, social, and psychological approaches that aims at improving the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders.

Editor-in-Chief
Prof. Paolo Girardi

Aims

Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their experimental and theoretical results in as much detail as possible. There is no restriction on the maximum length of papers. The full experimental details must be provided so that the results can be reproduced. Electronic files or software concerning the full details of any calculations and experimental procedures, if unable to be published in a normal way, can be deposited as supplementary material.
